

Tenor

92 Lusty youth should us ensue Choir

Henry VIII

1. 92 Lusty youth should us ensue Choir

Andantino ♩ = 92

Lus - ty youth should us _____ en - - - sue, His mer - ry
For they would have him _____ his liber - ty re - frain And all mer - ry heart shall sure all rue, For wh - so - ev - er they do him tell, compa - ny for to dis - dain; But I will not so whatso ever they say,

5

9

It is not for him, we know it well.
But fol - low his mind in all that we may.

13

How should youth him - self _____ best use _____
For in them con - sist - eth great ho - - - - - nour,

17

But all dis - dain - - ers____ for to re - - - fuse? Youth Though dis - dain - ers_____ would there - in put_____ er - ror, For 22

— has as chief as - su - - - rance Ho - nest mirth - - - with —
— they do sue to get them ——— grace All on - ly ——— ri - - .

25

vir - tue's _____ pas - - - tance. With good or - der,
 - ches to _____ pur - - - chase. For _____ Youth is Now un - to God this 29

coun - sel and e - qui - ty Good Lord grant us our man - si - on _____ frail _____ and Prompt to do, As well vice - es as vir - tues to _____ pray - er we _____ make, That this rude play may well _____ be _____ 33

_____ to be; For with-out their good gui - dance Youth _____ should _____ en - sue Wherefore these he must be gui - ded And _____ vir - _____ take, And that we may our faults a - mend And _____ bliss

38

fall _____ in great _____ mis - - - -
 - tue's pas - tance _____ must there - - - in be ob - tain _____ at our last

43

- chance. used. end