

Hey nonny nonny

Verse 1

This other day
I heard a may
Right piteously complain;
She said always
Without deny
Her heart was full of pain

Verse 2

She said, alas,
Without trespass
Her dear heart was untrue;
"In every place
I wot he has
Forsake me for a new.

Verse 3

Sith he, untrue,
Hath chosen a new
And thinks with her to rest,
And will not rue,
And I so true,
Wherefore my heart will brest.

Verse 4

And now I may
In no manner a way
Obtain that I do sue,
So ever and ay
Without deny
Mine own sweet heart, adieu.

Verse 5

Adieu, darling,
Adieu, sweeting,
Adieu, all my welfare,
Adieu, all thing
To dood pertaining,
Christ keep you from all care.

Verse 6

Adieu, full sweet,
Adieu, right meet
To be a lady's peer!"
With teares wet
And eyes replete
She said "Adieu my dear.

Verse 7

Adieu, farewell,
Adieu, la bell,
Adieu, both friend and foe!
I cannot tell
Where I shall dwell,
My heart it griev' th me so."

Verse 8

She had not said
But at-abraid
Her dear heart was full near
And said "Good maid,
Be not dismayed,
My love, my darling dear."

Verse 9

In arms he hent
That lady gent;
In voiding care and moan
That day they spent
To their intent
In wilderness alone.
